

Guest: Jaclyn Friedman, queer Jewish writer, award-winning performance poet, co-founder of the "Women, Action & the Media" conference, and co-editor of "Yes Means Yes: Visions of Female Power and a World Without Rape."

Gordene starts the conversation with a historical perspective on sexuality and feminism, from suffrage and Kinsey to ending violence against women, followed by discussion of a fresh perspective on women's power in today's world.

Part 1:

Video not working? Please tell us

Part 2:

Video not working? Please tell us

Now available on DVD:

Feminism, Sex & Gender

The DVD includes TWO full half-hour programs.

$19.95 + shipping

Purchase DVD

Your purchase directly supports the work of Gender Education & Media.

